

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By RON BURPO

COOKING in grandmother's day surely was "never like this" . . . If the modern homemaker had an Alladin's lamp, she couldn't wish for anything better. Fresh, sun-ripened strawberries and golden corn-on-the-cob on her table with a blizzard outside. Fruits and vegetables that taste as if they had just been picked in the garden 'thou'gh her home may be in the middle of a large city . . . Frozen foods eliminate waste of food and preparation time, they come ready to cook or serve; you don't have to shell peas, hull berries or clean gritty vegetables. What's more, because they are quick frozen when ripe and fresh, they have more vitamins than those purchased fresh in the store.

Last week we at WOODY'S SMORGASBURGER had two birthday parties. DENISE BEHRENS from TORRANCE celebrated her 9th birthday here. DENISE invited 12 for her friends and what a time they had. We also had the pleasure of having BROWNIE TROOP 2262 in on Saturday. FORTY BROWNIES and a VERY LARGE CAKE. Do you think they had fun? I know they did. Hope to see you over the Holidays. Drop in and help yourself to a candy cane from our candy decorated CHRISTMAS TREE.

Have you had Bar-B-Que chicken lately? Every Monday night we at Woody's Smorgasburger are serving truly delicious chicken dinner for only 99c . . . One half a chicken broiled right before your eyes on real charcoal for that ever so wonderful flavor . . . includes soup or salad, baked potato with sour cream and chives, roll and butter. "Give your family a treat on . . . Family Eat Dinner at Woody's Night."

pipes. Nothing you could say would make any difference. Develop an elephant hide, and a tin ear.

The best thing you can do is this: When he starts in, say to yourself "This poor, insensitive character has never had a decent relationship with his own family therefore he must attack me and my family when we show one another love and respect." Put this column in your top drawer and read these words, when you need the help.

Dear Ann: The other morning I picked up the phone and a clear, feminine voice said, "What are you going to do about the romance between your husband and . . . ?"

My husband has an ordinary job in an ordinary office. The woman named is a widow who works there also. I never suspected by husband of cheating. He seldom goes anywhere without me and I've no reason to be unsure of him.

First Art Exhibit and Sale Staged by Woman's Clubs

Torrance Woman's club and Torrance Junior club sponsored their first annual sidewalk art exhibit and sale in the parking area near the City Hall on a recent weekend with artists from the entire area participating. Proceeds from the art sale will be used for the clubs for a scholarship.

Winners of first places in the juried show were Marian Cummings, Eileen Osborn, and Lanny Pringle.

Honorable mentions went to Lillian Baker, Joyce Fairchild, Wayne Harvey, Dorothy Montgomery, Brenda Reiff, and Anna Aiken.

Judges for the show were Dale Sexton and Cliff Clayton.

Serving as chairmen for the joint club affair were Mrs. Howard Altermatt, art chairman of the Senior Woman's club and Mrs. Gerson Jacob-

MRS. A. R. FELANDO, JR. and MICHAEL . . . Enjoying a Christmas Goodie

Festive Party Fare Recipes Contributed by Mrs. Felando

For a whirl of Christmas parties underway, the Herald guest cook, Mrs. A. R. Felando, Jr., 2906 Opal St., shares a number of party delights with readers today.

Already an artist by instinct, Mrs. Felando added to her ability in cake decorating by attending the Torrance night school. She makes her own clothes, knits and works with all guests.

Mrs. Felando is third vice president of the Junior Woman's club and is in charge of all ways and means projects.

Mr. Felando (Tony) is a production engineer at AirResearch Manufacturing Co. He, too, has his hobbies having made all the coffee and end tables in his home.

These native Californians are the parents of three sons, Steven 8, David 6, and Michael 3, all active in the Indian Guides and Cub Scouts. The Felandos have lived here for 4½ years.

Mrs. Felando is contributing several of her favorite quick Christmas parties recipes, which her whole family is enjoying as they get ready for Christmas.

Mothers Club Installs New Officer Panel

Amid green, red and white nylon Christmas trees with angels and Santas at each plate, the Job's Daughters Mother's Club of Bethel 50 of Torrance held its annual Christmas banquet and installation on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. in the Crystal Room of the Palms Restaurant.

The head table was reserved for the installing officer Mrs. Don Wolf, who served as the group's first president; Mrs. Mary Lenton, retiring president; Mrs. Charles Jackson, incoming president; Mrs. Leonard Babcock, past guardian; Mrs. John Polliard, guardian; and Mrs. George Crabtree, past president.

The new "crew" of workers installed with the tools to build the foundation for another year were Mmes. Jackson, president; Ken Clutter, vice president; G. M. Yancey, recording secretary; Q. R. Skaggs, corresponding secretary; C. W. Shartle, treasurer; and P. M. Crossman, publicity.

Mrs. Lenton presented gifts on behalf of the mothers to Mrs. Babcock for being faithful as a former guardian and friend of the group, and Mrs. Crabtree for her supervision of the meals the girls, as well as the mothers, served during the past year.

The event was under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Halquist, assisted by Mmes. Lenton, Crossman and George Powell. Honored guests also included Mmes. Willys Blount, M. A. Orend, K. H. Kail, Ed Thayne, and Ralph Allen.

Holiday Guests
Arriving next Monday from Longview, Wash., will be Mrs. T. W. Eatmon and five children who will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Eatmon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cowie, 18516 Mansel Ave.

Fuchsia Unit Gives Party For Children

Torrance Branches of the California National Fuchsia Society, 1809 and 130, entertained at a Christmas party for children of members and Girl Scout troops sponsored by the branches at McMasters Park on Dec. 8.

A full program was presented by Mrs. Stephen Boyko, chairman.

Group winners in the musical chairs were Jacqueline Maxwell, troop 1809; Kathy Pryor, troop 130, and Dallas Boyko for the members.

Susan Brady performed a ballet number and Troop 1809 presented a play under the direction of Carol Brady. Girls of Troop 130 sang three songs, "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," "Twelve Days 'Til Christmas," and "Day is Done." Francis Donahue played two accordion selections.

Aleen Ballinger sang a Christmas song and led the group singing "Silent Night." Adding to the fun was the showing of several silent movies with guests furnishing the dialogue.

Refreshments were served at tables, festive in the Christmas decor.

In a corsage contest, with 27 entries, Mrs. Godfrey Nelson announced the winners as Gail Boyce, Susan Guthrie, Tony Reynolds, Marietta Passero. Candy canes were presented to all guests.
